Models RLX-series

The RLX-series offers three kinds of brewing systems: dispensing into either glass decanters, airpots or fixed containers. Thanks to the self regulating hot plates, the containers and the special Bravilor Bonamat airpots, a consistently high quality of beverage is maintained for you to serve. Depending on the quantity of coffee you require, the machines are equipped with one or two brewing systems. A hot water section and hot water/steam section complete the series. The water out of this unit is boiled so serving a delicious, clear cup of tea is guaranteed.
